

A dynamic action shot from a rugby match. In the foreground, a player in a white kit with a red diagonal stripe is leaping high into the air, his arms outstretched towards a green and white rugby ball. Below him, a player in a green and gold kit is also jumping, reaching up. Several other players from both teams are visible at the base, supporting the jumpers. The background is a large, blurred crowd of spectators in a stadium.

RUGBY WORLD CUP 2023

This autumn all eyes are on France as the world's top International Rugby Union Teams battle it out for the Webb Ellis Cup and the title of World Champions. From the eagerly anticipated opening game between the hosts France and the All Blacks on the 8th of September, and all the way to the final at the iconic Stade de France, Paris on the 28th of October, we'll show all the action from all 48 games on our stunning HD screens.

It's shaping up to be an incredible World Cup event! Ireland; the reigning Six Nations Champions and current World #1, feel it's their time, yet the home advantage and supporters will surely play into France's hand as they look to get their hands on the Webb Ellis Cup for the first time. 3-time World Champions New Zealand, who have the experience on the big stage, are looking ominous – and can never be written off. The reigning World Champions South Africa are undoubtedly a force to be reckoned with and will be a match for anyone, whilst a new look England side will aim to rise from the ashes, and stake their claim.

Don't miss a single moment - join us for all the games; from kick-off to the final whistle, every defence-splitting break, every back row clear out, every turnover and huge hit, every history-making try, every conversion and last-second penalty as we celebrate every second of the Rugby World Cup 2023.
